WORK IS STARTED ON DONA DORA MINE

Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 27 .- George Courtney, of the Dona Dora mining company, was in Las Cruces yesterday, and today took out a force of men to work on the property of the company. There will be about about 18 men employed at present, it being the intention of the company to add more to this force as the work progresses.

The Dona Dora is a sliver-lead proposition, showing veins of good ore, me of it running very high in silver. and all of it carrying a big percentage of lead. The property is located in the Organ mountain mining district east

MOUNTAIN SHEEP ARE

SEEN IN DONA ANA HILLS Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 27 .- Cowboys and sheep herders who have been work-ing in the Dona Ana hills for the past weeks report that they have seen a flock of mountain sheep there. The animals are always seen in the most difficult places of access, usually at the top of the peaks, and the reports vary as to the number, some of the boys claiming to have seen eight, while others say there are only five. For the past six years there have been no reports of any one having seen mountain sheep in the hills. The New Mexico game law prohibits the killing of these animals at any time and provides a severe penalty for the violation of the

SMALL BOYS IN SCRAMBLE 'FOR SMALL CHANGE IN STREETS.

Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 27 .- Followng an old-established custom in Las Cruces, the business men of the town gave the small boys their annual Christmas treat yesterday morning. It has been usual on each Christmas for the business men to throw a few dol lars worth of nickels into the street for the small boy to scramble for, and yesterday, although the day after Christmas, saw an ususually large crowd of youngsters ready for the fray. Thousands who are wintering here added to the sport of the crowd and the benefit of the boys by contrib-uting, the custom being a novelty to
